Part B – Project Information

Project Name (required)

Canada Confederation

Project Summary (required)

In 100 words, briefly describe the goal of the project and its key activities.

This video project explores the historic process that brought Canada together as a Dominion, beginning with the 1867 Confederation of Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, and Nova Scotia. It highlights the political deadlock, regional challenges, and economic pressures that led to the Charlottetown and Quebec Conferences, where a bold new vision for a united Canada took shape. Central to this journey was Sir John A. Macdonald, whose leadership helped turn negotiation into nationhood. The video also traces how other provinces and territories—Manitoba, British Columbia, Prince Edward Island, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Newfoundland and Labrador, and the northern territories—joined the growing Confederation over time.
